Discover Oaks of Rockford!

At Oaks of Rockford, we understand that buying a retirement home can be a difficult decision. But when you visit our premier, low-maintenance 55+ community just outside of Rockford, Michigan, you'll see why so many of our residents chose to buy their retirement homes here.

Our single family homes with attached garages have great floor plans to entertain family and friends. It's easy to stay active with amenities such as a pool, fitness center, pickle ball courts and nearby golf course. Hiking, biking and walking trails are also abundant.

With the flowers blooming, the festivals kicking off, and so many fun activities to check out - here are some of the best things to do in Michigan this spring!

Visit the Tulip Festival - The Tulip Time Festival takes place in Holland, Michigan, and has over five million tulips to enjoy. One of the most romantic destinations in Michigan, it has been a local tradition for over 90 years.

Tour the Local Wineries - May is Michigan Wine Month and a time when local wineries plan for lots of special events, wine dinners, and discounted bottles.

Experience an Outdoor Music Concert - When you're in Michigan, you don't have to wait until summer to enjoy live music outdoors. The outdoor concert season kicks off in the spring at many popular venues around the state.
